

Thumper Magee here:

As most of you know I am the spokes dog for the Dudley family – all 13 of us Cavaliers, Possum Kitty and Pa and Ma, the keepers of the “Pak”.

I wanted to bark out to you about a Foundation Pa and Ma set up in my name this past summer. They asked my permission of course, but I feel honored they consider me the patriarch of the Pak. True, I was their first Cavalier along with our angel Tinkerbelle, but all of us deserve this honor as we all love and support this idea.

They established “Thumper’s Rainbow Bridge Foundation” to aid other pets seen at Cape Small Animal Clinic who need special veterinary care when their human parents find it difficult to afford that care. Any pet needing assistance at CSAC will now be able to apply for it there or can contact me, Thumper Magee, at our website for an application.

Our vet, Dr. Brian Heuring, Medical Director of CSAC is a super special guy who treats all of his patients and their families with excellent care and compassion. I always bark out a special woof to him for all he does, not only for all of us, but for every patient he sees.

Pa and Ma have been in the shoes of those families and believe that a beloved pet of any family deserves the chance at needed surgery, treatment, and care when the chips are down. They decided to set up this foundation now so they could see it in action before they meet all of us at the Rainbow Bridge. This fund has already helped one pet and they were truly happy to see it happen.

Obviously, the foundation can’t sustain itself without help from others who also want to pay it forward. To our surprise, we have received our first donation and our entire Pak was excited to know others support this, too.

I hope I haven’t “Woofed” too long. I just wanted to let you know how much Pa and Ma love animals and wanted to honor all of our Pak by establishing help for the precious animals of other Paks in need.

I thank you for lending me your ears and hope you find it in your hearts to help us out sometime in the future when you are able. Tax Deductible Donations can be made at any Commerce Bank or CSAC to “Thumper’s Rainbow Bridge Foundation”.

Woofs, snuggles and lots of doggie kisses from our Pak to your Pak.

Your Buddy,

Thumper Magee
